ORDERED: Peter G. Sheridan
DATED: 3/18/10
Time to answer or otherwise move is extended to April 30, 2010

Re: Church Towers Urban Renewal Corporation v. Hoclo Capital Group, Inc., et al.
Docket No.: 2:10-cv-00638

Dear Judge Sheridan:

This firm represents the interests of Defendant, Federal National Mortgage Association d/b/a Fannie Mae ("Fannie Mae") related to the above matter. The following is an application/request by Fannie Mae for an Order Extending Time or Otherwise move as to the Complaint.

Good cause exists for granting this request. No prior extensions have been sought by Fannie Mae. Moreover, Plaintiff's counsel has consented. The Complaint in this matter was served on Fannie Mae in its Washington, DC office on February 17, 2010 and an initial pleading was due to be filed on or before March 9, 2010. Fannie Mae engaged New Jersey counsel in a timely manner but its initial counsel was conflicted out of the case last week before it could secure an extension of time under L.Civ.R. 6.1(b) or from Plaintiff's counsel. This firm was engaged this week and has reached out to Plaintiff's counsel who consented to a request for an extension of time until April 30, 2010 to file a response. Such an extension will not prejudice or delay this matter in any way. The complaint was filed on February 2, 2010. There are approximately fifteen (15) Defendants in the matter and service is, in all likelihood, still ongoing as to some of the Defendants. No initial conference has been scheduled.
